

- (a) to advise the Government on questions concerning constitutional status and development in the Cayman Islands;
- (b) to publish reports, discussion papers, information papers and other documents on constitutional matters affecting the Cayman Islands;
- (c) to promote understanding and awareness of this Constitution and its values; and
- (d) to exercise such other functions as may be prescribed by a law enacted by the Legislature.

The Commission indicated that it would be most grateful to receive any information or opinions that any public official had received in relation to the Constitution or an interpretation of the Constitution.

- Communication between Chief Officers and the Constitutional Commission

The Commission indicated to those present that they were happy to be contacted to assist in any way but asked that all correspondence be sent to their attention via the Secretariat.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL COMMISSION